PETITE CHÉRIE

Born in Palermo, Italy, Marta Bonura, AKA “Petite Chérie”, has graced numerous magazine covers both nationally and internationally, including Burlesque-Zine, BombShell, Delicious Dolls, and Retro Lovely and many others.

She specializes in burlesque classics, such as “The Glass Show”, delivered with her particular style.

Glamour and impeccable style immediately recalls the glittering presence of burlesque icons of the past.

THE MAGIQUE OF BURLESQUE

Retro atmospheres, dramatic looks and unapologetic sensuality; sensational strip-teases in which irony and the art of seduction are manifested masterfully.

A burlesque show can bring this to your stage, creating a magical form of entertainment that can transport its audience to a distant era, the Golden Age of Hollywood.

1950s hairstyles and make-up, sexy lingerie and retro-style stage costumes contribute to the ethereal aura of Petite Chérie.

THE GLAMOROUS PETITE CHÉRIE

Glamour is not simply a synonym for flawless looks and sparkling dresses.

Glamour is the sparkle of her dress that ensnares your attention, leading it down every curve of her body like a taboo, holding your gaze until you look up into her eyes, only to see her smile at you naughtily, because you know and she knows that she's got you in the palm of her hand.

Petite Chérie will lead you to a world of tease, beauty, ultra-femininity, and sumptuous elegance, and transport you with her into a magic dimension that will bewitch you.
